The lobby makes a grand entrance, with stately, expansive ceilings and sophisticated furnishings that welcome you home. Invite the excitement of the outside upstairs to your outdoor terrace, where views of the cityscape are like no other, or escape to your suite and take comfort within the luxury that abounds. The open plains of your living space stretch beyond your window walls toward the waterfront or Citadel Hill. Standing here, you are part of Halifax's history, and its future. You do what many others who have come before you have done, from this very same place, for over 120 years: Write your own story.
